++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Largely cloudy and mild.

This Evening and Tonight:
A murky evening with the risk of some hill fog and occasional drizzle in places. A few clear spells developing later in the night but remaining mild throughout under a southwesterly breeze. Minimum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Tuesday:
Dry with some sunshine through the morning. Turning greyer as cloud builds from the northwest, bringing light rain into western areas during the evening. Mild with a continued moderate breeze. Maximum temperature 15 deg C (59 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Further spells of rain possible on Wednesday. Mostly dry on Thursday and Friday with brighter intervals developing once morning fog clears. Daytime temperatures still a little above average.
